Women's Organizations.

The regular monthly meeting of the Rescue Home association was held Monday afternoon in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. C. F. Elliott, the president, presided and read the opening devotional exercises. Report of the work at the Rescue Home was given. Mrs. Elliott announced that the 29th infantry, had offered to give an illustrated lecture on Japan for the benefit of the debt on the home. This was accepted with a rising vote of thanks.

Delegates to the national convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution, to be held in Washington in April, were elected at the monthly meeting of Rebecca Stoddert chapter of the D. A. R. Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Horace V. Broadus on East Boulevard. Mrs. G. F. Hawks was elected alternate for the chapter.

At the meeting, a change in the by-laws was discussed. The chapter was elected to hold its next meeting on April 5, at Hotel Paso del Norte. Mrs. C. E. Kelly will be toastmistress in charge. A letter of thanks was read from Mrs. Neil Caruthers of Austin, for the contribution of $25 from the Rebecca Stoddert chapter toward the D. A. R. scholarship fund. Mrs. Hawks presented a suggestion for the formation of a chapter of the "Children of the Republic" in El Paso. This organization is for the purpose of stimulating patriotism among children. Upon a motion offered by Mrs. R. L. Thompson, the chapter was authorized to appoint a committee to go about the organization of this society. Mrs. G. F. Hawks was the chairman of the day's program. Mrs. Caruthers read an interesting paper on the pioneer women of the early days of the Texas republic. Mrs. J. W. Lorentzen talked on the prevention of the spread of the flag and urged the passing of laws to compel the respect due the flag. Mrs. L. L. Robinson talked on the D. A. R. American Mother's magazine, outlining the policy of the publication, in addition to giving an outline of the matter which it published. Mrs. Robert Lander sang "Swanee River" accompanied by Mrs. Adine T. Owen. Mrs. Will T. Owen sang several selections, also accompanied by Mrs. Adine Owen. Jack Yowell, of the El Paso high school, read his essay on "The Children of the Republic" which won the first honorable mention in the recent medal contest of the D. A. R. Miss May Krantzhor, of the El Paso School for Girls, read her essay on the same subject, which received the second honorable mention. A pantomime flag drill was given by seven girls of the Lamar school, with the Lamar school boys' glee club singing "We Owe It to the States." Miss Beulah Hall accompanied the children on the piano. The girls in the drill were Imogene Leavelle, Hazel Allen, Virginia Traylor, Hedwig Edwards, Madeline Birney, Rachel Boynton and Ella Petcolas. The boys in the glee club were Robert Page Myers, William Mayfield, Will Robert, Edgar Walker, Heesep McMillan, Lucy Coulson, Hartley Thompson, Theo Leuchman and Cecil Boyd. Following the program light refreshments were served.

Parties.
In honor of Miss Emily Newman, of San Francisco, who is the guest of Mrs. Nathan Solomon, a delightfully informal party was given by Miss Selma Ziegler-Monroe, Monday night at her home on Montana street. Mrs. Samuel Neustadt entertained the guests with fortune telling during the afternoon. Light refreshments were served by the hostess. The guests were Messrs. Samuel Neustadt, Max Moyer, Edmund Lachman, Misses Emily Newman, Grace Mayer, Madeline Birney, Hedwig Edwards, Louise Blumenthal, Ethel Levy, Rose Goodman, Minnie Holzman, Rose Hill and Betty Merkin.
Seven girls of the younger set entertained with a party Monday night at the home of Miss Marion Young on Arizona street. The hostesses were Misses Young, Kathleen Allen, Ruth Meyers, Nellie Smith, Hilda Light, Mildred Bishop and Mary Nafe. The game of "Linhua" was played. Miss Esther Rice and Miss Christie Brown won the prizes. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The guests were Misses Esther Rice, Bertha Hilgartner, Nadine Porter and Christy Brown. The boys were J. R. Clark, Walter Clayton, George Leighton, Earl Brown, Frank Scott, Eugene Womeldorf, Arthur Hathaway and Frank Scotten.
